

Winter Banquet

Starters

Allora, come now, what other way is there to begin? The ingredients of our Magic will flavour your passion. Let your imagination titillate your senses with our hot and cold Mediterranean anti pasto.

It is the way we have always started, men need to eat well in order to listen to a woman's conversation. So let's sit down and feast together, it's been a while since we last shared.

Middle

We celebrate in the classic, in Italy we call it 'prima' piatti, delectable pastas reminding us of our historical past. It is the seed of anticipation for the offerings about to come.

Mains

For mains there is always magic to intrigue. We offer our guests a selection of choices from the finest of meats, offering from the sea, to our vegetarian selections.

With love, the Chocolate Chili Fillet remains centre stage, as it is of course the very love that brought us together to begin with.

Dessert

Trio di dolceletti, a trilogy of flavour to round off your night, complimented with tea, coffee and friandese.
